Puffs From the Fan's Hop Pipe

George Kahler, the chap who peddles the baseball tip, says that he has hit the trail of Cy Falkenburg this season. Falkenburg has a hop on his fast one, and this is what he uses to put them away in a pinch. His other stuff is much better but it is the hop that Cy relies on to turn the trick. It's this hall that's going to keep the old boy up there for awhite.

As a result of three home runs in one day the Washington club has purchased the land adjoining the right field fence, and will enlarge that garden because of the large warshar.

Having a sure first division team, barring the class on the hill that is on form shown so far this year, president Britton and manager Huggins have decided to seour the baseball world for a pitcher or pitchers.

As the National league race is netwancing into the stage where experience counts more than novicing. Britton and Huggins are after pitchers of experience and not the kind who down in the Class Q league are striking out 27 batters per game and never allowing a hit.

Heine Will Look 'Em Over.

The result of the conference between the Cardinal mogule is that Heine Peitz, coacher and catcher will be sent to the American association and Eastern league cities to try to purchase what is wanted—pitchersplichers-pitchers!

There are several ex-major league star filingers who are going at a speedy clip in the A. A. at present. One particularly is Cyrus Morgan, ex-Brownie and former member of several Agentican league clubs.

Morgan is with the Kansas City Blues and has won eight out of nine games for Charley Carr's crew, and it would not be surprising to see Cyrus come to the Cardinals shortly to fill the yawning gap in the pitching staff. Of course, Carr may refine to part with Morgan, but if money will land him, he will be secured.

in the ninth and the last half of the lith, with one man out. Gannett lifted a high fly back of second base and Cornish dropped the ball and Gannett slid into second base. Hardwick then sent the ball far beyond the left fielder, it would have been good for a home run ordinarily, but Gannett had crossed the home plate with the deciding tally when Hardwick reached second. Fininshing the circuit of the bases Gannett met with a wild vation and was carried from the field. The next same will be played in Brooklys.

A peculiar point that Lambert makes now about his losing fights is that he had been accustomed in his amateur bouts to let up when he had a man "going" and give him a chance to come back. He followed the same custom when he started as a professional, with Bicastrous results to himself, for when he bad a man "going" and let up his work for a moment he found the other fellow coming back and giving him what he should have handed him opponent. It took a few contests to break him of the habit, but be thinks now that he can take care se thinks now that he can take care ants weighed close to 114 pounds.
